From: The desk of [YOUR NAME]

Dear Marketer,

You've heard it over and over again - "The Money's In The List".

Sounds too much like a cliché nowadays doesn't it?

You've been bombarded with emails telling you that "You need your own list".

You know what? I'll hand you a list for FREE. How would you like that? Simply grab a phone directory. There's your list. Now start making money.

Listen, although the phrase "The money's in the list" is true - I don't totally agree with it.

What you need is your own ultra-responsive list. By that I mean subscribers who can't wait to receive all your emails.

I've been in many businesses before such as MLM opportunities and it came down to this - It's all in the numbers game. • A list of 100 responsive subscribers will only generate you 2 sales at a conversion rate of 2%.

• A list of of 1,000 responsive subscribers will generate you 20 sales with the same conversion rate.

So How Do You Build Your Own List of

1000, 7000, 10,000 or Even More? That's where I come in...

Many people ask the same questions over and over again. How do I build my list?

Why should I build my list? What is the best way to build my list?

Here's what happens when you just apply a couple of these "List Boosters":

Here - I've Tried Building My List The Hard Way... Yes. I bought and learnt from numerous: ebooks - I've read some that were even 100+ pages. Reports - Yep, most of them were filled with sales-pitches. Articles - Wasn't very helpful.

Home-study Courses - Great information but who has the time to do 30 or so

- Teleseminars
- and even Internet marketing seminars! I even tried "buying" those 100,000 instant list of subscribers pack only to find that
- most of those subscribers are unresponsive to any of my emails. Yes, I did "warmup" those fresh subscribers but was wasting a whole lot of my time.

Here's the simple truth.
